THURSDAY, DEC. 21, 1899.

THAT HOLY WAR.

It is a little remarkable how many fatalities and calamities have befallen those who participated in the scrap between the United States and Spain. The Morning Post sums up part of them as follows:

A sad fatality seems to follow the chief participants in the great Dewey day in Manila Bay. Captain Gridley, who commanded the Olympia, died soon after the battle, and a few days ago Commander Ward, who controlled the gunboat Petrel, passed to the beyond.

Lieutenant Brumby, the flag officer of Dewey during the fight surrendered to an attack of typhoid fever a few days ago. To these sad fatalities we may add the catastrophes which have followed Dewey himself, first overburdened with adulatory ceremony, quickly followed by matrimony, a free gift of a house and popular condonation.

Death or destruction of one sort or another seem to be natural concomitants of our war for the propagation of Christianity and other liberties.

And the Post might have added that Schley failed to get due credit for the Santiago sea-battle, and the country had a spasm because Hobson allowed himself to be almost kissed to death.

What has become of the Jeter C. Pritchard boom for the vice-presidency? The Caucasian is about the only paper in the state which seems to have regarded it seriously. The Caucasian endorses it and says it is high time the south was represented and that the republican party could not do better than to name him. The Caucasian has evidently forgot what it said in 1897 when Pritchard was a candidate for re-election to the senate. It was:

"If Mr. Pritchard, who is not a sinner, is re-elected it will be by dishonest methods, and a chasm will be created and no bridge can be built across it."

Senator Butler has introduced a measure providing for the election of the Chief Justice of the United States and associate justices by the people. What North Carolina cares more about is the election of United States senators by the people.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

What Will Likely be Done Before It Reassembles.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 21—Congress having adjourned for the holidays, there are now but very few senators or representatives in the city. Yesterday there was barely a quorum present in the house, and at night it was estimated that there were hardly fifty members of congress all told in the city. The work of congress thus far with the exception of the passage of the financial bill has been remarkably slow. It is usual, or rather it is frequent, for the house before the Christmas vacation to send one or two of the appropriation bills to the senate, but not an appropriation bill has even yet been prepared, and the committees of the house are not fully organized, although the speaker had a long time to make his appointments yet before adjourning them until just before adjournment for the holidays. The policy of the republican managers of the house seems to be to keep the appropriation bills in the background so as to prevent the house after the Christmas recess from having any spare time on its hands. Their evident purpose is to prevent as far as possible congress from appropriating money for public buildings, war claims, river and harbor improvements, etc., and to make a record for their party so that they cannot be charged during the coming presidential campaign with recklessness, and extravagance.

It is said that during the recess of congress, the appropriations committee will prepare one or two of the big appropriation bills, so as to have them ready for presentation to the house immediately after reassembling.

Almost as soon as congress reassembles, the senate will plunge into the currency debate, which is expected to occupy one month and perhaps even longer time.

Representative Klutze, of North Carolina, was a caller at the executive mansion Wednesday morning. He called for the purpose of presenting to the president a number of students from Elizabeth College, North Carolina. The boys are here for the purpose of attending the performance of Paderewski, the pianist. They spent the time yesterday in visiting the capital, monument, and other places of interest.

The house committee on elections, number one, held its first meeting the other day for the purpose of fixing times for the consideration of the various election contests. The committee did not fix the time for the consideration of the case of Tolbert vs. Latimer, of South Carolina, nor in the cases of the contests for seats of the North Carolina members. The committee in these will determine upon the date later.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effective. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

A Sad Christmas-Tide.

The Christmas-tide, which comes with happiness to so many,
leaves no heavier heart than that which leaves the breast of Thos. B. Bailey, Esq., of Davis. He had two daughters
at the Normal College in Greensboro,
and both are now dead, while his wife,
with whom he was with the last daughter died, being also a victim of typhoid fever. It is a strong man who does not feel under such a weight of loss
as fallen upon this good man's head.
It is well for him that in this hour he has an anchor, and that he knows so well where to look for comfort when earthly comfort fails, and when the sympathy of his friends seem so much like idle words.—Charlotte Observer.

Hadn't Heard of War T. x.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 20—Job Cleveland, a cousin of ex-President Grover Cleveland, was initiated into the mysteries of the war tax in the internal revenue office of Collector Harkins. The old man is a manufacturer of wine and leads a secluded life in Buncombe county.

For some time reports have come to Collector Harkins' office that Mr. Cleveland was violating the revenue law by failing to affix a stamp to each bottle he put up. The collector wrote the old gentleman asking him to come in and make an explanation. Today Cleveland stated to the collector that he had heard nothing of the new law to raise money for prosecuting the war and he had gone on innocently violating the law. He made out a statement of back tax due, paid the amount due and bought a supply of stamps for future use.

TILLELLY WANTS CALEDONIA.

Will make the State $5,000 a year
for Ten Years for it.

Mr. J. R. Tillery, of Halifax, has great faith in the Caledonia farm, recently purchased by the state, and in the possibility of its being made to pay when worked by convicts.

"I will take that farm and 400 convicts
for ten years and give bond to guarantee payment to the state each year of $5,000. The state must furnish me, in addition to the 400 convicts, with tools, and 167 miles. These
I will guarantee to replace at the end of ten years, in as good condition as I received them."

The penitentiary authorities say that the crop gathered this year will not be short of the estimate they have been making, viz.: 2,500 bales of cotton, 30,000 bushels of peanuts, 100,000 bushels
of corn and 100,000 pounds of pork.

The crops will not be quite gathered by Christmas.—News and Observer.

shaft, 60 feet deep, has been sunk, but
is not yet working.

Midnight Service of Song.
An ancient custom in England and continental Europe, as well as in some of the larger cities of our own country
is that of singing, at midnight of Christmas eve, the songs the angels sang at the birth of Christ. This beautiful custom will be observed at midnight
next Sunday at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The regular choir, assisted by such well known singers as Misses Lola Carraway, Maude Hunter,
Grace Clary, Mrs. Myra Albright
and Mr. Tom McAdoo, is preparing an elaborate program of bright and beautiful Christmas music, and a large congregation from all the churches of Greensboro is desired to assist in this first welcome to the "Babe of Bethlehem."

A Limited Number

Of tickets only, will be given out to
